Three months later it became necessary to rent additional space to accommodate a Gordon jobber. Within six months another room was acquired, and at the end of the first year the Dispatch Press occupied 2, 000 square feet of floor space. afternoon to be delivered in Bethlehem, Penna. , the following Monday morning. Mr. Turpin did the composition, Mr. Levine made up the pages as fast as the Linotype delivered the slugs, and Mr. Tooker handled the presswork and did the binding. The job was delivered on time as usual--and at a handsome profit. The Dispatch Press has just passed the second milestone of its career and has fittingly celebrated the event by moving into a new home at 2 Lafayette Street, within easy access of the Hall of Records and the twentieth story of the Municipal Building, from which emanates a large portion of the law printing for the City of New York. To make the second anniversary complete, however, the Dispatch Press has just installed a Model 18 Linotype. From Office Boy to Owner Daniel D. Scott, proprietor of the Scott Linotyping Co. of Boston, is one of those progressive New England printers who took the short cut from office boy to owner. Not so many years ago he was propelling the office broom over the floor of the plant of the C. H. Simons Co. of Boston. He saved...
