Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Lehigh Alumni Bulletin, Vol. 4 We are not worthy of the greater opportunities that have been ours if we don t measure up to the responsibilities such opportunities entail. Only when we can truthfully say we have left no stone unturned in our efforts to be of service, when we have made every sacrifice and have seen to it that every organ over which we have any control is functioning in a way to give the maximum result, can we say we are doing our part. Our share does not depend on what another does or can do. It is measured only by our own possibilities. This Association of yours is trying to help the University in securing and training young men for our Government service. Lehigh has furnished 800 trained men to the Army and Navy and, God helping us, we will keep our complement full. We are working with the University authorities to help when and where we can in their magnificent efforts to utilize in war service the teaching staff, equipment, buildings...
