Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.I am not an English teacher, and I am not offering any kind of paid services. I just want you to know my story so you can use it to keep you motivated in learning another language. I hope you will find some helpful information in this book that can guide you. I know that not everything in this book will fit you, but what is not a fit for you might be a good fit for someone else. Once I read a book about an American guy trying to learn Spanish. His story began with his failures in learning this new language and ended with his success in achieving his desired goal. At that time, I was still at the crawling stage of my process of learning another language, and this book was so inspiring for me that I promised myself that one day I would tell my own story. If you have ever tried to learn another language, or if you are thinking about doing so, this book can serve as a reference guide or as a support that will show you that you are not alone in this long journey. Learning another language is something amazing, but at the same time, it can be very challenging and frustrating. That s why most people that start the process give up before reaching their desired aim. Maybe you are studying a second language already, but you are frustrated because you are not becoming fluent in your expected timeframe, or perhaps you know all the grammar rules of the language and have a huge vocabulary but are not able to keep up a conversation with...
