The College agreed that in future all candidates for the Licence of the College should be required to pass an examination in Surgery before the Examiners of the College, unless they had already done so before some other Qualifying Body. The College voted a sum of one hundred guineas in aid of the Building Fund of the Royal Maternity Hospital. The College voted the sum of twenty-five guineas as a subscription to the fund for erecting a statue to the late Dr David Livingstone, African explorer. 29M December 1874.--The College approved of a suggestion by the Chairman of the Board of Supervision, that in the interests of public health, members of the medical profession in Scotland be requested to make Returns to the Local Authority of all cases of infectious or contagious disease which may occur in their practice. At the same Meeting the College expressed its strong objection to a proposal by the Convener of the...
