Some do it to honor God, others to honor their husbands, but others are forced to wear this because of the tradition imposed by religion, which disgrace the character of God, who they claim to love and serve. They wear veils over their faces, as if they were a true reflection of the grief that exists in their souls. However, far away from there, many kingdoms claim to be free because they don't wear those veils but refuse to take the blindfolds off their eyes in order to see the truth. They despise the truth, despite having it at their disposal. Laziness, indifference and rejection to seek and accept the truth, has enslaved them to their own passions, because they have decided to be blind by choice.
